Tuesday's services will be conducted in the St. Mark's Lutheran church in Auburn with the pastor, Rev. Allen K. Trout, officiating. Burial will be in Woodlawn cemetery.

The body of the youth was brought to the Gerig funeral home in Auburn Sunday morning and will remain until shortly before noon Tuesday when it will be taken to the church to lie in state until the hour of services.

David, a graduate of the Auburn high school in 1948 and a left tackle on the school's football team for three years, was critically injured a week before his death when the automobile in which he was riding crashed into a bridge rail and abutment on U. S. 27 two miles west of Auburn.

The Evening Star, Auburn, Indiana
July 12, 1949

David Lisle Rohm
Born: March 9, 1929
Died: July 11, 1949
20 years old

The driver of the car, 20-year-old Vernon Scott of Auburn, told investigating officers that he lost control when a tire blew out. Scott is recovering from injuries in the Dr. Bonnell M. Souder hospital in Auburn. His condition Monday was reported as "good."

The youths were testing a new carburetor on Scott's car when the fatal crash occurred. They were brought to the local hospital after the mishap. Young Rohm was moved to the hospital at Fort Wayne last Tuesday. An emergency operation was performed Tuesday night in an effort to relieve pressure caused by the skull fracture.

Unconscious Until Death

He was unconscious from the time of the accident until his death. In addition to the skull fracture, he sustained compound fractures of the left ankle and left hip, a broken right arm and deep cuts on his head.

The youth was a lifelong resident of Auburn. He was born March 9, 1929. Before the accident, he was employed as an apprentice pressman at the Messenger Corporation in Auburn. He was a member of the St. Mark's Lutheran church of Auburn where he served as an usher.

Surviving, besides the parents, is a sister, Joyce, 14.

Twenty-year-old David Lisle Rohm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Rohm of 349 West Eleventh street, Auburn, was buried Tuesday afternoon in Woodlawn cemetery following final rites conducted at 2 p. m. The services were held in the St. Mark's Lutheran church with Rev. Allen K. Trout, pastor of the church, officiating. The body was taken to the church Tuesday noon from the Gerig funeral home in the city. David died at 10:25 a. m. Sunday in St. Joseph's hospital at Fort Wayne from injuries received July 3 in a traffic accident that occurred west of Auburn on U. S. 27. 7-12

Snow

Snow is soft to touch and smell, and it makes me feel happy as well.
snow is big snow is small, But still I like to see it fall. Snow comes in all shapes and sizes; if I were a judge I'd give them prizes. Playing in snow is so much fun;
And I really don't miss the sun.

Dear Mom and Dad,
It is very close to grade card time. And since we are learning to write good letters in English my teacher thought one letter could go to you. So far in language arts we have studied word meanings, root words, phonics, word recognition and vocabulary. In English, besides learning to write good letters, we have worked on capitals and punctuation. Mrs.
Pamland is helping us with our spelling.
But we have to make our capitals and punctuation in this letter. We are going to write to Mommy the letter this week too. My teacher says if I want to mail it to him to bring one more envelope with a stamp. It will go to Washington D. C. where he lives at the zoo. Come to school and visit soon time you can, has to read.

Sincerely yours,
Lynn
Ann

I Love you Very Much

Author - Mary E. Gross

Mild north wind blows keen and cold; Mr. Snowman is one day old. Sturdy and tall and important he stands,

A broomstick clutched in his icy hands. Chilly east wind; the sky is gray, On Mr. Snowman's second day. A trifle thinner, but proud, he shows a glittering icicle on his nose. West wind, south wind - sunshine at last!

The third day finds him melting fast. Good-bye Mr. - Snowman, come back once more,
When the north wind howls again at our door.

Keller amuses, instructs kids

Bill Keller of the Indiana Pacers spoke to approximately 100 boys and girls on the concluding day of the First Annual DeKalb Basketball School Friday. Trophies were awarded to the winners of the three individual contests at each grade level by DeKalb Coach Al Brown.

Keller, highlighting his talk with anecdotes and antics, covered all the different phases of basketball from drills and exercises to defense and shooting. His talk extended far past the allotted time, simply because Keller was enjoying himself and had a lot to say. It was evident he took pleasure in the rapport he developed with the youths.

Keller illustrated his lecture with a shooting exhibition, winding up by dropping in jump shots from center court. "I'm a 'one-more' type of player," he explained to the group. "If I miss a shot, I" shoot one more."

The 5-10 guard, who was graduated from Purdue and Indianapolis Washington, later signed autographs and handed out copies of the record "The Ballad of Bill Keller."

During the three-week daily program, nearly 100 boys and girls from the area took part in the activities. The basketball school included fundamental training, guest speakers (in addition to Keller, Rick Mount, John Weinert, head coach at St. Joseph College, and Ed Eldon Miller, head coach at Western Michigan, spoke at the camp), inter-squad and interschool game competition.

*Many Many times I've needed you,
 A million times I've cried.
 If love could have saved you,
 You never would have died.
 It broke my heart to lose you,
 You did not go alone,
 For part of me went with you
 the day God called you home.
 He saw you getting tired
 when cure was not to be,
 He closed his arms around you,
 and whispered, "Come to Me."
 For all that you went through,
 The day came when you needed rest.
 God's garden must be beautiful,
 For He only picks the best.*

Mom & Dad
A Question of Love?

As I sit & wonder about you both everyday

I love you both very much in each & every way

It must be hard for you both when I love you like I do

It seems you only care only when no one else is there

Do you really love me or is it just a hoax because ... →

I really love you both, you really mean the most

You both so very special
You mean so much to me

Love is like a lock And you both seem to have the Key.

I love you both & Miss you when you not here with me.

Graphic arts

Students in DeKalb High School's vocational graphic arts class learn job skills while producing many useful publications. Their work, shown at right, includes the school newspaper, programs for all sporting events and plays, and forms used in school administration. The 11 students spend three hours each day in the class. Last year, eight graduating students entered the graphic arts field. This year's students, shown above, are (from left) Todd Dickson, Cara Wallace, Rod Speidell, Lynn Springer, Mark Metzler, Jed Gearhart, Angie Deetz, Wayne Decker, Gary McCandlish, Mike Buchs and Janet Lewis. Stationed at their presses (below) are Mark Metzler, Cara Wallace and Wayne Decker. Their instructor is Jim Murdock. Other vocational courses at DeKalb are auto mechanics, trades, agriculture and interdisciplinary cooperative-education. (Star photo by Dave Kurtz)

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

*Many Many times I've needed you,
A million times I've cried.
If love could have saved you,
You never would have died.
It broke my heart to lose you,
You did not go alone,
For part of me went with you
the day God called you home.*

*He saw you getting tired
when cure was not to be,
He closed his arms around you,
and whispered, "Come to Me."
For all that you went through,
The day came when you needed rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
For He only picks the best.*

Up Close & Personal

Dennis Oberlin is our Ft. Wayne Site Manager/ National Sales Manager and has over 30 years of Sales & Marketing experience in a variety of positions. Five years as an International Sales Manager and eleven years as a District Sales Manager.

Dennis and his wife, Wendy have four children and four grandchildren. They recently moved from Auburn, IN to Fort Wayne, (which I'm sure is nice when Dennis has to leave on business at 6:00 a. to catch a flight out of Ft. Wayne, or drive to work in Indiana's unpredictable weather).

Hobbies and interests:

- Running - Runs 3 miles/day 364 days a year - takes off Christmas Day.
- Golf - Likes to play when he can, which isn't often.
- Financial/ Equities Markets
- Jazz Music

Dennis is a Kentucky Colonel. For those of you who aren't familiar, this is an honorary title. Dennis was commissioned by the legislature and government of Kentucky for Dennis' part in developing a tobacco balling machine and process in conjunction with the University of Kentucky.

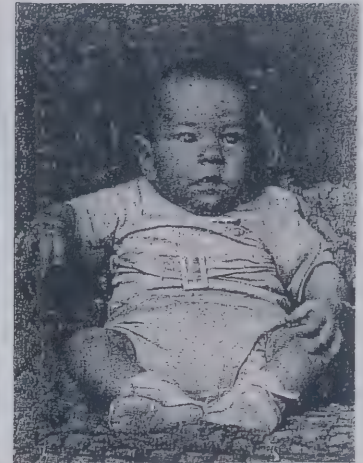

Fortunately for us, Dennis manages to juggle many tasks daily here in Ft. Wayne and we're lucky to have him.

To Parents:

It is necessary to evaluate progress periodically. This card is an effort on the part of the teacher and the school to evaluate your child's progress for the benefit and information of the child, the parent, and the school.

Aside from simply evaluating, the school's goal in reporting is to assist the child in developing his greatest potential mentally, morally, and physically.

Dr. James Watson
Superintendent

The principal and the teacher will be pleased to have you consult them at any time and to cooperate with you to make your child's work more effective.

The marks on this card represent the best judgment of the teacher as seen in the work done at school. We suggest that you talk over this report with your child each time it is received.
